

Emergency

That Handsome Devil

Perhaps you may have heard of me
I am your sense of urgency
The thought will make your stomach turn
Uninsured unconcerned

I'm running and falling and crawling toward the calling
Everything will be fine just get into the meat line
I am screaming I am yelling I am crying I am telling you
That everything will be fine just get into the meat line

Is it common courtesy
If there's a fire to yell emergency
The acids in your stomach burn
Uninformed and unconcerned

I'd like to save you there's just not enough room for us all
I'd really like to save you there's just not enough room for us
all
I'd like to save you there's just not enough room for us all
I'd really like to save you there's just not enough room for us
all
