

Everybody's Robbing Everyone

That Handsome Devil

Peter picked the pockets while he walked away with wallets
Deidre was dishonest and could polish up a promise
Junior rode a scooter, confused her for a loser
When they seized all her computers she was halfway to Bermuda

They just take (they just take)
While we wait (while we wait)
Demonstrate (demonstrate)
If everybody's robbing everyone
I guess I'll get me some

Larry had some liver spots, no filter for his inner thoughts
A cabin by the river made of interlocking cinder blocks
Sarah was a songbird, always striking up the wrong chord
Tom Ford and a long board with attitude she blamed her mom for

They just take (they just take)
While we wait (while we wait)
Demonstrate (demonstrate)
If everybody's robbing everyone
I guess I'll get me some

Jump back
Like a drone attack
Your taxes
They pay for that

Jump back
Have a heart attack
Your healthcare
Don't cover that

They just take (they just take)
While we wait (while we wait)
Demonstrate (demonstrate)
If everybody's robbing everyone
I guess I'll get me some

Annette and Marge had rented cars charged on stolen credit cards
In debt and reachin' menopause while breakin' several federal laws
Legal or illegally, just takin' in the scenery
Of a dream that's built on greed and thievery

These companies with subsidies for suffering and thuggery
These companies of drugs, disease we're marketing and publishing
These companies with subsidies for suffering and thuggery
These companies of drugs, disease, all stocks are traded publicly

They just take (they just take)
While we wait (while we wait)
Demonstrate (demonstrate)
If everybody's robbing everyone
I guess I'll get me some
