

Everyone's Trying To Kill Me

That Handsome Devil

More drugs in me than the bushes at the courthouse
Or in between the cushions of your couch
I feel like hot dust, but this is all I got left
So listen up and talk a lot less

I'm lonely, are you lonely too?
And do you feel like it is only you
I couldn't save them and it's gonna get me too
Did you feel like it was only you?

My friends, their friends, their friends' friends
Are trying to kill me, really?
Everybody that I know
Is trying to kill me

My friends, their friends, their friends' friends
Are trying to kill me, really?
Everybody that I know
Is trying to kill me

I daydream about jumping in front of a train
While all the commuters just fuckin' complain
And everybody on the platform will cover their face
And I wonder at my funeral if you'll have something to say

I don't want another drink, I don't want another bump
I'm afraid of falling down if I get much further up
I don't want another hit, I don't want another shot
Don't you make another line, that I do not wanna cross

My friends, their friends, their friends' friends
Are trying to kill me, really?
Everybody that I know
Is trying to kill me, really?

My friends, their friends, their friends' friends
Are trying to kill me, really?
Everybody that I know
Is trying to kill me, really?

Don't offer me a blow I have trouble saying no
And I don't want any more, my cup's already full
No don't offer me that dope, I have trouble saying nope
And I don't want any more, my cup's already full

Jump back, kiss myself, pass out, piss myself
I think I need a little help
Hit me!
Jump back, kiss myself, pass out, shit myself
I think I need a little help
Hit me!

My friends, their friends, their friends' friends
Are trying to kill me, really?
Everybody that I know
Is trying to kill me, really?

My friends, their friends, their friends' friends
Are trying to kill me, really?
Everybody that I know
Is trying to kill me, really?
