

Shutup You're Stupid

That Handsome Devil

They read your palm
Lead you on
Tell you everything you need is gone
The energy you're feeding on

She does her best impression of me
Says it came out unintentionally

Is it a simulation or an incantation?
Perhaps it's just a syncing of vibrations
Or perhaps you'll never guess, there is no subtext
Let's just get undressed (ha)

Taking all my vitamins and
Searching for enlightenment
The world is way too frightening
There's not much that I like of it

Shut up you're stupid
Just kiss me
Shut up you're stupid
Just hold my friggin hand

Well I thought, maybe I'll treat myself to a meal
At one of those fancy places
Have a couple drinks, say something outrageous
Become enamored with the waitress
I'll get the courage to ask her out
She'll say she had a man
And giggle with her friends
I'll be too embarrassed to go back there again

Taking all my vitamins and
Searching for enlightenment
The world is way too frightening
There's not much that I like of it

Taking all my vitamins and
Searching for enlightenment
The world is way too frightening
There's not much that I like of it

Shut up you're stupid
Just kiss me
Shut up you're stupid
Just hold my friggin hand
(Hold my friggin hand)

Shut up you're stupid
Just kiss me
Shut up you're stupid
Just be my friggin man

Can't keep my mind off of that kind of love
Sitting on the sidewalk getting high and stuff
Can't keep my mind off of that kind of love
Sitting on the sidewalk getting high and stuff

Can't keep my mind off of that kind of love
Sitting on the sidewalk getting high and stuff
Can't keep my mind off of that kind of love
Sitting on the sidewalk getting high and stuff
