

The Impossible

That Handsome Devil

So there I am
Crawling from the sea
There is nothing you can take from me
'Cause I am free

On the land here we are destitute
Intellectuals will peck at you
While trying to have sex with you
Well I know
That it seems impossible

Well there's something that's been missing
In the way that you've been kissing
Perhaps you had a vision
And you found some new religion
I know
That we got so far to go

So there I am
Flopping on the beach
There is nothing you can take from me
Cause I am free

Have you heard the news
Everybody wants to murder you

You may be tempted
Just to burrow in
And lay down on the floor again
Close the curtains and the door again
And order in
Well I know
That it seems impossible

Well there's something I've been thinking of
A poison that we're drinking up
Destroying everything we love
It stings me when you bring it up
I know
It was not so long ago

So there I am
Swinging from the tree
There is nothing you can take from me
'Cause I am free

Love reminds me of this dream I have
But why should I believe in that
I'm gonna take my freedom back
Well I know
That it seems impossible
