

Twist the Knife

That Handsome Devil

They call me lonely
They say I'm blue
'Cause I go crazy when I'm not with you

If it's a curse, then make it hurt
Come on and curse me
I'll go to work with all the jerks
And wake up early
With all the little birdies
Chirping for me
Well I'll break their scrawny necks
One of these mornings

Get love and hate confused
Can't separate the two
Oh my love, how I've hated you

I say it's over (it's over!)
This time we're through (we're through!)
But I go crazy when I'm not with you

They call me lonely (you're lonely!)
They say I'm blue (boo hoo hoo hoo!)
But I go crazy when I'm not with you

Come on and twist the knife
Let's make it painful
I wanted rainbows with occasional fellatio
It's gotten different now, my angel
Wouldn't you say so?
Oh have you even had the chance to shut your cakehole

Get love and hate confused
Can't separate the two
Oh my love, how I've hated you

I say it's over (it's over!)
This time we're through (we're through!)
But I go crazy when I'm not with you

They call me lonely (you're lonely!)
They say I'm blue (boo hoo hoo hoo!)
But I go crazy when I'm not with you

I see that look in your eyes
And I hide the cooking knives
The arsenic made me nausious
But I love a good surprise
It's till death do us part
I wouldn't lie, my pudding pie
But I could speed that process up, now
Couldn't I?

Get love and hate confused
Can't separate the two
Oh my love, how I've hated you
