

Far From Home

Thaurorod

The secrets of life
And all of the mysteries out there
I need to unveil
Where no one has been to tell a tale

I climb to the mountain high
I roam under crimson sky
I pass through the darkest gates alone
Into the depths of my quest I go

Far from home
On a journey to unknown
Far from home
We have come still we go further on and on...
Long and winding road
From here the only way to go

I climb to the mountain high
I roam under crimson sky
I pass through the darkest gates alone
Into the depths of my quest I go

Far from home
On a journey unknown
Far from home
We have come still we go further on and on and on...
Far from home
On a journey to unknown
Far from home
We have come still we go further on and on...
