

Don't Worry

The 1975

When you're in love but you don't know what to do with it
When blackness hangs overhead like a cloud

Don't worry, darling 'cause I'm here with you
Don't worry, darling, the sun will shine through

When you wake up and you don't know what day it is
When the pain flows through your heart and your bones

Don't worry, darling 'cause I'm here with you
Don't worry, darling, the sun will shine through

When you feel no one knows just what you're going through
When your insides feel much colder than snow

Don't worry, darling 'cause I'm here with you
Don't worry, darling, oh, don't worry, darling
Don't worry, darling, I'll always love you

You
