

Then Because She Goes

The 1975

You are mine, I've been drowning in you
Reflect your light again
Beautiful, please don't cry, I love you
When you leave, I cry on the inside

I wake up, love you, so love you, love you, love you
Cry
I wake up, love you, love you, love you, love you
Supposed to leave by half-past eight, you wait for a bit

Pissed again, I've been dying to meet you
Reflect your light again (Oh)
I love you, oh, I love you
When you leave, I cry on the inside

I love this, I love you, love you, love you, love you
Cry
Oh, I love you, love you, love you, love you, love you
Supposed to leave by half-past eight, but you stay all the way
