

Inside Joke

The 502s

There's a shine in your eyes tonight
You got a funny little throwback smile
There's a feeling that can't be beat
When you're young and you're living off of your belief

Oh yeah
It starts off as a commotion
You try then your feelings get rolling
I hope that you're feeling like I'm feeling
Cause
I'm feeling for the first time
Like I am free

Hair down, care down
Put your windows up
I jump, I fall
I was always enough
You tell me stories
But you made 'em up
That's a-ok
I was always enough

There's a fire in your eyes tonight
You got a funny little throwback smile
There's a feeling that can't be beat
When you're young and you're living off of your belief

Hair down, care down
Put your windows up
I jump, I fall
I was always enough
You tell me stories
But you made 'em up
That's a-ok
I was always enough

Hair down, care down
Put your windows up
I jump, I fall
I was always enough
You tell me stories
But you made 'em up
That's a-ok
I was always enough

I was always enough
I was always enough
