

You Ain't the Reason

The 69 Eyes

Well I can't afford to bleed my blood is purest speed born from a restless seed on the gypsy road that's me well your chance is fifty and four to realize my score nothin' to tie me down I'm cheaper than a drug hound well I don't need you nor more I just can't wait to say to you goodbye today well I can't tell you thousand lies the difference is in the eyes this life is built on sin it's deeper than the shit we're in well I don't need you anymore I just can't wait to say to you goodbye today no way you ain't the reason to stay
