

When I'm Out of Town

The 6ths

Where do you go when I'm not around?
Who do you love when I'm out of town?
The butcher, the baker, the thin undertaker whomakes not a sound?
Who do you love when I'm out of town?
Have all my dreams come tumbling down?
Who's in your arms where I used to drown?
The old money-lender, the lonely bartender, the carnival clown?

Who do you love when I'm out of town?
Don't say.
It doesn't matter anyway, because it doesn't matter what you say.
All of our pages are turning to brown.
We're breaking up, and I'm breaking down.
The man in the forest, the dashing young florist, the nurse musclebound?
Who do you love when I'm out of town
