

You Can't Break a Broken Heart

The 6ths

Sometimes you remind me of a doll
Lifelike, but so frail and so small
Your plastic eyes see nothing
And your painted lips are still
And I know you don't love me, but you will
You've tried science, you've tried art

But you can't break a broken heart
You can tear my brain apart
But you can't break a broken heart
You cried when you knew I would look
You tried every trick in the book
But I read that book yesterday
And yesterday's for fools
And I won't play by yesterday's dumb rules
