

Aperture Expands

The Absence

Lives of passing moments decomposed in the flesh
Vivid exhumation, aperture...

To what fathoms do your demons dwell? Lost in deprivation
Diving into your own imbibing divination

Lives of passing moments decomposed in the flesh
Vivid exhumation, aperture expands

Aperture expands

With hurling hands toward the heavens, heroic hearts demise
Lost in the hum of disposition balance simply dies

Can you let your spark climb or will it flicker no vacancy
Into your wasted years under concrete uncertainty

Lives of passing moments decomposed in the flesh
Vivid exhumation through an aperture...
In this lightless mourning frozen in a flash
Instant illumination as the aperture expands

Lives of passing moments decomposed in the flesh
Vivid exhumation through an aperture
Lives of passing moments decomposed in the flesh
Vivid exhumation when an aperture expands
