

Celestial Hysteria

The Absence

I come to life
Imprisoned in an astral sea
Thrust into a panoramic
That blackens endlessly

The frozen gaze of seamless space fills my eyes
As the strands of serenity snap
My thinning mental, horrified

Lost in Celestial hysteria

Gripped by the drift of lifeless steel & glass
Spn into the gaping mouth of infinite loneliness

So I plunge encapsulated
Swallowed by the yawning void
Remains of life masticated
Sanity Devoured
Every drop of patience evaporated
Now my mind is freed from the fibers of life

Absorbed by the abyss
Doomed to dementia
In solitude I am left adrift
Celestial hysteria

Lost in Celestial hysteria

The time unknown burns within my lungs
While seconds flicker into minutes
And days enslave into months

Still I plunge encapsulated
Swallowed by the yawning void
Remains of life masticated
Sanity devoured alive
Every drop of patience
Evaporated & Destroyed
Mow my mind is freed from
The function of life

Absorbed by the abyss
Doomed to dementia
In solitude I am left adrift
Death cannot come quick enough

Absorbed by the abyss
Doomed to dementia
In solitude I am left adrift
Celestial hysteria

Years beyond all relative time
Within this wall-less catacomb
Reality implodes my mind
From all humanity i am widowed

[Leads Joey/Taylor]

Absorbed by the abyss
Forever lost in Celestial hysteria
