

Coffinized

The Absence

This hate it follows you down within this hole
A place where no consequence can meet your tragic bones
The graven tongues salivate behind their mongrel teeth
Barely content to swallow let alone feast

On the fruitless seeds of the ever black
Can you taste the salt that floats right through your skin?
Diving deep in a deafening pitch
Seconds drip in this body sized interment

So feel the cold gaze
It swallows you alive
Casket embrace
Confines coffinized
Confines coffinized

The kingdom of graveyard souls
A prophecy self-fulfilled
The conqueror of carrion heart
You wear your tombstone well

This path it leads the way to the fields where many mourn
Where mouths that vomit now engorge

So feel the cold gaze
It swallows you alive
Casket embrace
Confines coffinized

The beckoning crypt
It swallows you alive
Gripping mortuous deptn
Confines coffinized
