

Grieving Winds

The Absence

Worship unhallowed nightmares
Of horrors unsurpassed
This funeral thirst in putrid praise
A frenzied feast fantastic

Hand in claw - demonic grasp
Oblivion breathing - a howling rasp
Bursting spores of consummate gore
Eternal reach miasmatic

These grieving winds they carry
The stench of the exhumed
Verminous choirs call out in praise
Forever

These grieving winds they carry
A song for the exhumed
Verminous choirs call out in praise
Forever you are unentombed

You're unentombed

In salted psalms of nocturne
This profane verse in polluted pen
Such picturesque vulgarity
Majestic and grandiloquent

Panoramic swirls - passing mists
Skies embalm - deflorate flesh
Engorging feast of eternal song
This summoning ovation

As these eyes pierce through my soul
I befell the spectral glance
In the lunar rays of equilibrant gaze
My obsession ritualistic

Such distance is un-beloved
Disembodied, ever-blackened might
The memory of a nighted king
Draped in abysmal twilight

Your image engrains eternal
Such an array of majestic sights
An empire of sunless sleep
The bringer of descending and never-ending night
