

Oceans

The Absence

Into the void
Capsized
Swallowed beneath the wake
Rise above, pull me under
Into a watery grave

I'm drowning out
Lights fading, too far to turn back
Is this it
One last burst of strength
Or the final breath spit
From dying lips?

Become one again
Through oceans capsized
Become one again
Or just drown
In your own demise

IN YOUR OWN DEMISE

I can feel ripping seas
Discontent swim right through me
Starless we sail
Into the mouth of hell itself

With this curse
We brought upon ourselves
Our voyage into this storm
The howling winds
And tempest rains
May consume us to the depths

ONCE AND FOR ALL

BECOME THE ONLY REASON
WE KNOW THE ONLY TRUTH

Become one again
Through oceans capsized
Become one again
Or just drown

Become one again
Through oceans capsized
Become one again
Or drown in your own demise

Become one again
Through oceans capsized
Become one again
Or just drown

Become one again
Through oceans capsized
Become one again
Or just drown in your own demise

WE KNOW THE ONLY TRUTH

Again
Through oceans capsized
Become one again
Or just drown
