

Radiant Devastation

The Absence

Our endurance spins in synthesis while focal eyes come to gaze
A guided transmission in chrysalis, focalize and initiate

Subterranean when they fall
Buried moments better left forgotten
Dearly departed I wish you well
Crawling into bondage

Subcutaneous when they speak
Summoned souls of a frozen death
Dearly beloved I beckon thee
Away from a desolate end

Radiant devastation, witness the veil dissolve
A golden revelation behind the Midas dawn

Signs fall from a failing blur
Broken prisms of mental decay
These remnants of ridden resistances
They corrode and ruin

Subterranean where they fall
Dearly departed I wish you well
Crawling away

Subcutaneous when they speak
Summoned souls of a frozen death
Dearly beloved I beckon thee
Away from a desolate ending

Radiant devastation, witness the veil dissolve
A golden revelation behold the Midas dawn

Dilate the minds of they who negate
Unleash the borders until they break
As they glaze over, let them gaze upon
With their unsighted eyes sewn open

Subterranean where they fall
Dearly departed I wish you well
Into the bleak of a desolate end

Radiant devastation, witness the veil dissolve
A golden revelation behold the Midas dawn
