The Forging

The Absence

[Lead Taylor]

All along these spiraling lines
We tread on narrow paths unpaved
Worn through a world of wounds
Severing souls in desperate search

Passed these well known walls
We all long to satiate
While dissipating bonds will break
Inspired minds transcend the void

Beyond our resignation
We reclaim the flame
Together in eternal return
We re-incinerate
Erupt the heavens ablaze

The forging
A spark within the pale
The forging
A thundering hammer to nail
The forging
Awaken your binding fate
Now prepare for the forging
Combine your lives and create

Housed in the glow of impended muse
Where the corners always connect
Totality attaining final form
Flawless & imperfect

Within this recognition
We reclaim the flame
Together in eternal return
We re-incinerate and burn
Erupt the heavens ablaze

Now. Prepare...

[Lead Taylor]
From the forced I Refrain
Within the unorthodox I Remain
Amidst dark days now sustained

Within the mending tombs of Unflagging putrid lore
I find a welcoming dissonance
In this cavernous roar

[Leads Taylor/Joey]

The forging
A spark within the pale
The forging
A thundering hammer to nail
The forging

Awaken your binding fate

Reclaim the flame

Combine/Create
