

Not Enough

The Aces

I don't know how
You got this hold on me
You say jump, and I
Say how high
Rewrote this song
About a thousand times
You say, "Won't you try
One more line?"

Tell me to go so that you can say
I'm the one that left you 'lone
Come running back
Just to watch you sit on your throne
Say pull the trigger
I'd kill for you, bleed for you
Do anything for you, yeah
But you just keep saying

Oh, you say
Say it's not enough
Say it's not enough for you
Not enough for you
You say
Say it's not enough
Say it's not enough for you
Not enough for you

I think back to the best
Of you and I
Wanna close my eyes
Hit rewind
But then I slowly
Start to realize
All those happy times
Were yours, not mine

Tell me to go so that you can say
I'm the one that left you 'lone
Come running back
Just to watch you sit on your throne
Say pull the trigger
I'd kill for you, bleed for you
Do anything for you, yeah
But you just keep saying

Oh, you say
Say it's not enough
Say it's not enough for you
Not enough for you
You say
Say it's not enough
Say it's not enough for you
Not enough for you

Running out of patience
All your expectations
One-sided conversation, oh

Running out of patience
Fuck your expectations
One-sided conversation, oh

Oh, you say
Say it's not enough
Say it's not enough for you
Not enough for you
You say
Say it's not enough
Say it's not enough for you
Not enough for you
