

Angel

The Addicts

You are an angel
That money couldn't buy
You are an angel
Oh lord don't ask why
You are a lover
Seductive from the start
You are a lover
That mends my broken heart

And when you bang your gong
I will surely run to you, my angel, my angel...

You are an angel
A messenger of peace
You are the beauty
That soothes the savage beast
You are a lover
Seductive from the start
You are a lover
That mends my broken heart

And when you bang your gong
I will surely run to you, my angel, my angel...
My angel...

And when you bang your gong
I will surely run to you, my angel, my angel...
