

Don't exploit me

The Adicts

Don't want your head, don't want your thoughts
Don't want your ideas, don't wanna get caught
You'd use my body, you'd use my mind
You'd use my talent if I was that kind

Don't exploit me, please don't use me
Don't exploit me, please don't abuse me
Don't exploit me, please just leave me alone

I am my own man, I am myself
Can't take interference from people like yourself
