

Rage Is the Rage

The Adicts

What if I told you, you could lose your mind
What if I told you, you won't do any time
Yeah, Yeah
What if you told me, that you'd had enough
Yeah, Yeah
Of getting angry, when times are tough

Rage is the rage, rage is the rage
This is the age
When rage is the rage is the rage

What if I told you, to break the law
What if I told you to Kick down the doors
Yeah, Yeah
How does it feel to be cast aside
Where do you go when
There's nowhere to hide

Rage is the rage, rage is the rage
This is the age
When rage is the rage is the rage (x2)

What if I told you, I don't care
I'm alright and life's just not fair
Oh yeah, oh yeah
Where does it get us
And what does it mean
When all our anger
Just sells magazines

Rage is the rage, rage is the rage
This is the age
When rage is the rage is the rage (x3)
