

Sunrise

The Afters

I've been waiting in the silence
I've been waiting for the morning to arrive
I've been waiting in the darkness
I've been praying that you just give me a sign

That you are close
And you will make a way here
O God I know
You lead me through the night

You are the sunrise
In my sky, my sky, in my sky
Nothing can hide You
From my eyes, my eyes, from my eyes
The day is coming soon
When You'll make all things new
You are the sunrise
In my sky, in my sky, in my sky

When I look at the horizon
I can see you reaching through the rain
I'll never stop believing
I will trust every promise that you made

That you are close
And you will make a way here
O God I know
You lead me through the night

You are the sunrise
In my sky, my sky, in my sky
Nothing can hide You
From my eyes, my eyes, from my eyes
The day is coming soon
When You'll make all things new
You are the sunrise
In my sky, in my sky, in my sky

Your love breaks through
My darkest night
I see it now more than ever
All that we've lost
Will be made right
I see it now more than ever
More than ever

You are the sunrise
In my sky, my sky, in my sky
Nothing can hide You
From my eyes, my eyes, from my eyes
The day is coming soon
When You'll make all things new
You are the sunrise
You are the sunrise
