

What Home Feels Like

The Afters

I feel it in the air tonight
There's something magical
The feeling when the sparks ignite
It's waking up my soul
And it's hard for a star to fly so far
When it belongs right in your arms
But no matter how far I will go
There is one thing I know for sure

There is no place I'd rather be
There is no place I'd rather be
For the first time in my life
I know what home feels like
This is what home feels like
This is what home feels like

This is what home feels like
This is what home feels like

Been running through the clouds of white
On the bluest ocean skies
I've been to the highest height
And I've held keys to paradise
But right now

There is no place I'd rather be
There is no place I'd rather be
For the first time in my life
I know what home feels like
This is what home feels like
This is what home feels like

This is what home feels like
This is what home feels like

And I never wanna leave
No I never wanna leave
'Cause I've found where I belong
This is what home feels like
And I never wanna leave
No I never wanna leave
'Cause I've found where I belong
This is what home feels like

This is what home feels like