

A Devil Made Me Do It

The Agonist

Catch me if you can
I am faster than your mind can fathom
Armed with the element of surprise
I slither through the corners of your eyes

Pull me inside your wildest dreams
I will follow - I will follow
In the wreckage of what I perceive
I will follow - I will follow

I'll take your unwillingness
And make you crumble
I'll take your hesitance
And watch you burn

Dancing blindly through all the madness
What if I, if I take a little peek?

Come out - come out wherever you are
Trust me you'll enjoy it
There's nothing quite like the sweet taste of impulsion
Let your inhibition take a back seat
Just enjoy the ride

Come out - come out wherever you are
Pull me inside your wildest dreams
I will follow - I will follow
In the wreckage of what I perceive
I will follow - I will follow

I'll take your unwillingness
And make you crumble
I'll take your hesitance
And watch you burn
