Fall into flames
All that remains of me is a stepped on
Thrown out piece of your enemy
All that remains of me is about to hit the ground

When you begin to deny all of your past lives When you begin to deny that you can't defend your lies

In total, In control
Get thrown overboard, get pulled below
Wait patiently, as it sorrounds me
In vitro, freakshow
Go home, go, set me free
The end is only a bloodloss, cointoss tragedy
Blinded-eyed guilty plea

So caught up in here and now
Walk on, walk on
Life expectancy goes down, corruption
The weakest mind will wear the crown
Cause we all need protection
Escape is a dangerous art
Addiction is the easy part
Please don't let me fall into flames

Night falls and darkness rises deep inside his skin Blood, sweat and tears will soon pay for this sin

In total, in control

Get thrown overboard get pulled below

Wait patiently, as it sorrounds me

Walks towards home, thinks he's alone

Wait and you'll see - the frust grows in his eyes Explanation is only a disguise

For Death's now enterprise

Infiltration

Self-destruction

Felt so lonely, what a tragedy
