

Gemini

The Alan Parsons Project

Watching waiting rising falling
Listening calling drifting
Touching feeling seeing believing
Hoping sending leaving

[CHORUS]

I couldn't say why you and I are Gemini
If I tried to write a million words a day
I see your shadow coming closer
Then watch you drifting away

[VERSE]

[CHORUS]

I couldn't say why you and I are Gemini
We're travelling a million worlds away
I see your shadow coming closer
Then watch you drifting away
