

Holy Hell

The Alchemist

Yeah
Holy hell, holy grail
What they said, you walking blind?
I know my hands, I know yours, say you feel
It's all braille, can't tell
Ayy
Shout out to 'Chemist, salute every nigga
I know that passed on, we here twisting
All of this venom passed on, word to the wise
Slow written songs
Blow kisses, they lost souls, remember taking too long
But all this fly take time, mindset for the niggas
Looked bad, she was right
Half on the line, blocking progress
Seeing shit on the screen, dead faces, ain't none of 'em green
Lord what I need, might drop me a seed
Hustle, repeat
Dragging my feet, hell on my back
Folks stare on my head
Stress stay on my back, need a few pretty 'Lacs
Niggas ride and switch, all these knives in my back
Look how he bleedin'
Look at him sideways, they got me like Day-Day
Crazy bitch next Friday, baby Dee head ass nigga
I ain't know they could act, truth told
Eye to eye, devil's staring me back
Time running laps
All contact, take care of that
Niggas tapped in, I'm with my partner dem
Was on the block with them, learned how to size in Fit in that size 10, can't walk in heels
Tighten up
Tighten up
Tighten up

Uh
We all soldiers
We all know it my nigga, weight on our shoulders
We still prevail, it's all emotions my nigga
Just love the moment my nigga
Wake in the morning and picture this day different
My nigga, the time will tell
Reflecting on memories since, still in my heart
That feeling still in my heart
I should've been there when you needed me, I still think about it
But now we grown, hand wipe away the hours on the clock
I stand alone, see the spite, separate that from myself
At times I've grown, 'least I claimed I did
Watching all my vices overthrow, she in my face still Can't find the judge to tell her no, so the poison seep
Weep in front of pain but never show, I'm tryna stay strong
Shawty tell me "Learn to let it go", I'm tryna hang on Scared of all the spaces, I don't know to keep it honest
I, still can't seem to let you know, it's like a bargain
Devil playing tryna barter with my soul
I, never know these days
Just let me know

Never know why
Never know why
