

Lamb Sauce

The Alchemist

- Where's the lamb sauce?
- Come on, man
- I'm starting to get pissed
- You know, watching you cook this, was, just a letdown
- That is one of the worst meatloafs I've ever eaten
- I'm supposed to eat this? Really?
- What's going on?
- I already know what's going on, it looks dangerous
- Are you walking off with my cup?
- Where's his cup?
- Oh, here comes more
- I didn't do the duck. I did it all. I'd already eaten duck. I tried it, it just didn't taste good. It tasted like a shawarma, eh
- Walk around, walk around. He was doing his job well but I could just see in his eyes the whole time, he just wished that he was playing with a little drum machine while smoking a cigarette
- Ooh, I watched him put the fresh custard in there with the Italian cherries...
