Ghost

The Almost

I'm so lost that I'm afraid
I've asked for help once again
I've got to get out
But you say the lies inside won't change
You say that I'll still be the same
So what, either way

Hey, you're so wrong, I'm so far gone,
I've left you behind
I can't hear, you almost forgot you
Hear me now
You can judge the ghost inside

I can only do what I can,
I'm still stuck here, half a man
But there is hope
That I won't be the same, you'll see
Listen to me

I'm about to crack and give in
I'm about to break, give it all away
