

King

The Amazing Devil

I'll keep the king
When you are gone away
Into darkness and howling, I'll keep him from drowning
As our boat is untethered from the dock
I'll keep the king
Keep him safe at bay
I'll keep him safe from the dark things that wait
In that house at the top of the rock
In that house at the top of the rock

There've been times I know
I'll stand up, up, up at the bow
And the waves of our bodies and the smell of our follies
Rips into the bark of my bones
You fumble through the dark
However wide and deep and far, my dear
The waves made of fingers and the madness that lingers
Rips into the bark of our bones

And let the sea birds cry
I'll let the sea birds cry

I'll keep the king
I'll keep the king
I'll keep him safe from the dark things that wait
In that house at the top of the rock

I'll smile as I climb the stairs (to the light)
To the light that you keep burning there (all hell)
And our muscles that are waltzing and our shadows that are bold
Sing, "Come rip up the flesh of my fears"
I know your fingernails are the colour of rust (come back)
And your veins are empty of dust (but our voices)
But our voices collide with each howl of the tide
Singing all hell and its fire waits for us

And let the sea birds cry
I'll let the sea birds cry

I'll keep the king (all hell, all hell)
I'll keep the king (all hell, all hell)
I'll keep him safe from the dark things that wait
In that house at the top of the rock

And let the sea birds cry
I'll let the sea birds cry

The wind and its shackles, the old fishers tackles (All that matters)
The sea and its waters, every unwanted daughter (Is that you're here)
Every moon in the sky, every promise and lie (All that matters)
All hell and its fire
Waits for us

I'll keep the king (all hell, all hell)
I'll keep the king (all hell, all hell)
I'll keep him safe from the dark things that wait
In that house at the top of the

In that house at the top of the
I'll keep the king (all hell, all hell)
I'll keep the king (all hell, all hell)
I'll keep him safe from the dark things that wait
In that house (all hell) at the top (all hell)
(All hell, all hell, all hell, all hell, all hell, all hell)
