Love Run

The Amazing Devil

O let the world come at you, love
Like distant toms a-drumming
Love, run! A song you know's begun

O let the earth a-tumble, love
And humble you withal
Keep running. It's up to you now
Up to you now love to

Run, love run, love run
For all the things you've done
Run for all the things that drum
Run for all those pages thumbed

Love run, love run, love run
For all the things you wished you'd done
Run for all you know that's coming
Run to show that love's worth running to
