

How Will I Know?

The Amazons

Damn out of luck and damn out of time
Stuck in a dream that you left behind
I count the hours fading into air
Can't shake the miles leading to nowhere
You said

How will I know if
Heaven will find me?
Everything I've lost
And all that I might be
There's a change in the way we talk
Ain't it strange we don't care no more?
Oh

Feels like we're drowning in an hourglass
World's turning slow, but time's been moving fast
The days and nights rolling into one
I need you most every time you're gone

How will I know if
Heaven will find me?
Everything I've lost
And all that I might be
There's a change in the way we talk
Ain't it strange we don't care no more?
Oh

Oh-oh, oh-oh
Oh-oh, oh-oh
Oh-oh, oh-oh
Oh-oh, oh-oh

How will I know if (Oh-oh, oh-oh)
How will I know if (Oh-oh, oh-oh)
How will I know if (Oh-oh, oh-oh)
How will I know if (Oh-oh, oh-oh)

How will I know if
Heaven will find me?
Everything I've lost
And all that I might be
There's a change in the way we talk
Ain't it strange we don't care no more?
Yeah

How will I know if
How will I know if
How will I know if
How will I know if
