

Raindrops

The Amazons

I've been listening to raindrops
Raindrops dripping down my windows tonight
I've been listening to all my fears and myself
I've been listening to silence
Silence froze the air for infinite time
I've been listening to silence for so long

But I still put on my radio today
And it's driving me insane
Oh lord
There's something in the way you say my name
And I'm tipped
Yeah

So stop
I'm a little
Out of place
Cause I'm all alone
And there's no one home
So wait
If you're a little
Out of faith
Cause we want it all
But we know we'll fall

Now there's a swelling in the river
Too many tears and the banks they will break
Too many tears and the banks will begin to break
Cause I've been running for a long time
I've been searching for the right path to take
Too many roads that will take me down to hesitate

But I still put on my radio today
And it's driving me insane
Oh lord
There's something in the way you say my name
And I'm tipped
Yeah

So stop
I'm a little
Out of place
Cause I'm all alone
And there's no one home
So wait
If you're a little
Out of faith
Cause we want it all
But we know we'll fall

Oh so stop
Cause I'm a little
Out of place
Cause I'm all alone
And there's no one home
So wait
If you're a little

Out of faith
Cause we want it all
But we know we'll fall

Yeah we know we'll fall
But we know we'll fall
