

Ready For Something

The Amazons

Lights are on
Everything's the same but the feelings gone
Nothing left to lose if nobody's won
I can see it in your eyes tonight
Holding on
Hard to stay inside when you're born to run
It's hard to feel alive when hopes dead and gone
I can see it in your eyes tonight

And I'm feeling
Feeling like I'm ready for something
Too much time just hanging on nothing
Trying to find the fire I've forgotten
And everyone I see now
They look the same as me
'Cause we're feeling
Feeling like we're ready for something

End in sight
Every bit of blood is boiling up inside
Heart beating out my chest leaving me paralysed
Gotta get out, get out
Somehow, somehow

And I'm feeling
Feeling like I'm ready for something
Too much time just hanging on nothing
Trying to find the fire I've forgotten
And everyone I see now
They look the same as me
'Cause we're feeling
Feeling like we're ready for something

'Cause I'm feeling
Feeling like I'm ready for something
Too much time just hanging on nothing
Trying to find the fire I've forgotten
And everyone I see now
They look the same as me
'Cause we're feeling
Feeling like we're ready for something
