

Say It Again

The Amazons

Coffee-stained your bedsheets, baby
Never knew that I was ready
Whisper it softly
Voices breaking with the dawn

So say it again
The letters on your tongue
The wicked and the fun
Am I the only one?

So say it again
The sugar on your lips
The daylight from your kiss
My universal fix

Second guessing, what the day brings
Won't come close to how goodbye stings
I'll feel electric
When you walk back through the door

So say it again
The letters on your tongue
The wicked and the fun
Am I the only one?

So say it again
The sugar on your lips
The daylight from your kiss
My universal fix

Say it again, ehh
Hey, hey, hey

Fool me a lot
Fool me at heart
I wanna feel the love we've got

I wanna feel the love we've got

So say it again
The letters on your tongue
The wicked and the fun
Am I the only one?

So say it again
The sugar on your lips
The daylight from your kiss
My universal fix

Say it again, ehh
Hey, hey, hey
Say it again, ehh
Hey, hey, hey

Ooh

Say it again, hey

Hey, hey, hey
