

Runnin' Wild

The Angels

When she needs somebody, she's an only child.
Look into her bedroom, she's a lonely child.
She's highly rated, sophisticated, she looks so at ease
But she's an actress, she had practice
She's not what she seems.
Don't let her take you in, she's Running Wild.
Mother and her curfew held her back from boys
Bottled up her fantasies, she had no choice
Her body's aching, the ties are breaking
She can't wait anymore,
Now she needs someone to share her private toys.

Outside, nothing to bother her
No ties, no one to follow her
Outside, she's Running Wild.

When she needs somebody, she's an only child.
Look into her bedroom, she's a lonely child.
She looks so easy & uncomplicated
Don't let her take you in, she's Running Wild.
Running Wild - crying out for more
Never gets it all - burning up inside - can't stop her now.
