

Losin' Control

The Animals

Last night I met you and today I can't forget you, I know
My heart keeps on crying, 'cause my pride keeps on trying to go
You turned me on a little too fast
Before I knew what had hit me, the sensation had passed
And now all the fever is catching up to me at last

And I'm losin' control of my body and soul
My mind keeps on freaking out
Yes, I'm losing control of my body and soul
And my mouth don't know what it's talking about
But are you worth it, girl?
I don't even know if you worth it, girl

You have a magic, that is just a little tragic to me
I'm filled with desire but how painful a fire can be
You've got me shakin' in my boots over you
I keep biting my nails while my nerves break in two
I've lost all my senses but somehow I've got to pull through

And I'm losin' control of my body and soul
And my mind keeps on freaking out
Yes, I'm losing control of my body and soul
And my mouth don't know what it's talking about
But are you worth it, girl?
I don't even know if you worth it, girl

Yes, I'm losing control of my body and soul
And my mind keeps on freaking out
I'm losing control of my body and soul
And my mouth don't know what it's talking about
I said I'm losing control of my body and soul
And my mind keeps on freaking out
I'm losing control of my body and soul
