

How long do you remember swimming with a shark?
Sinking further down the hole I crawled out from Can't stop, the waves will crash and bring you to your knees
Deceived, you crawl away defeated

Hold on, don't fall through
You're broken but you'll glow too
Crimson eyes, traumatize
Hold on, I'm on the ledge with you

I'm on the ledge with you
I'm on the ledge with you

Help me, I'm losing all the air inside my lungs
Can't see, I'm staring down the barrel of your gun
Unlocked, I drown myself every single day
Rescued, somehow I escaped you

Hold on, don't fall through
You're broken but you'll glow too
Crimson eyes, traumatize
Hold on, I'm on the ledge with you

In my car, time reads in reverse
We'll go far outside this universe

In the air, where we go and what we've done
In nowhere, if we arrive, it's hit and run

In my car, time reads in reverse
We'll go far outside this universe
In the air, where we go and what we've done
In nowhere, I'm on the ledge with you
Crimson eyes, no one can see
(I'm on the ledge with you) No one else except for me
Take the blame, spread the wrath
(I'm on the ledge with you) You're the one with no heartbeat
Crimson eyes, no one can see
No one else except for me
Take the blame, spread the wrath
You're the one with no heartbeat
Crimson eyes, no one can see
No one else except for me
Take the blame, spread the wrath
You're the one with no heartbeat
Crimson eyes, no one can see
No one else except for me
Take the blame, spread the wrath
You're the one with no heartbeat
