The Anix

(Enemy in the mirror)
(Enemy in the mirror)
(Enemy in the mirror)
(Enemy in the mirror)

You can take it all away, I been stripped before
Leave a knife in my place, I been left for more
Just a ghost in my shell, no life inside
Driven to my own hell, swallowing insecticide

Can't find your love, don't see a trace
I feel you're sinking down
We dispose of lost and erased
It seems we're breaking down

Enemy in the mirror I don't recognize
Can not be repaired or immortalized
Just a ghost in my shell, no life inside
Driven to my own hell, this is my paradise

Can't find your love, don't see a trace
I feel you're sinking down
We dispose of lost and erased
It seems we're breaking down

Feels like your fallen through
Again, again
Seems like you're monochrome
Again, again
(Enemy in the mirror)
(Enemy in the mirror)
(Enemy in the mirror)
(Enemy in the mirror)

Can't find your love, don't see a trace
I feel you're sinking down
We dispose of lost and erased
It seems we're breaking down
