

Gravity

The Anix

(Gravity)

It's heavy like a heart break
Spinning me back down
So heavy like you

Shattered night
Our dreams can't unwind
Solitude unchained
A cruel bind
A weighted force
Drags me so low
A dark abyss
I've come to know

It's heavy like a heartbreak
Spinning me back down
Paranoid future
Let it all come down
It's heavy like-

Shattered hopes
Have fractured our dreams
I'm lost within
These endless sub-streams
The weight of life
A ceaseless pull
A war within
Our choice is so full

It's heavy like a heartbreak
Spinning me back down
Paranoid future
Let it all come down
Heavy like gravity
Gravity
It's pulling me down again
Like an ocean
Tears black and blue

Heavy like gravity
Gravity
Chasing stars again
Like gravity
Gravity
It's pulling me down again with you

Dragging me down again with you

It's heavy like a heartbreak
Spinning me back down
Paranoid future
Let it all come down
Heavy like gravity
Gravity
It's pulling me down again
Like an ocean
Tears black and blue

It's heavy like a heartbreak
It's heavy like a heartbreak
Break
Break
Break
Break
Break
Break
So heavy like you
So heavy
Heavy
Heavy
Heavy
Heavy
Like you
