

Mask

The Anix

What's inside you
Submerged below
If you're see through you'd be hollow
I know you could disarrange
Lose your mask now I've watched you change

Sometimes
We can not see
Behind your eyes
What hides beneath
Sometimes
We can not see
Between the lines
You'll feel deceived

No honesty

If you shut down
We'll both forego
Whats behind now in the shadows
Whats behind now in the shadows
Whats behind now in the shadows

Sometimes
We can not see
Behind your eyes
What hides beneath
Sometimes
We can not see
Between the lines
You'll feel deceived

We can not see
We can not see
