

Nevermind

The Anix

I've been following your place for nothing
It's just another waste of time
Hoping for a taste to something
But clearly I was out of line
You told me you wanted more
That you'd be here standing
Or something, sure
But we miss this landing

Nevermind
You could still walk away
Nevermind
You would never mind to say goodbye
Goodbye
Nevermind
You would never mind to say goodbye

I was hoping for a chance at something
I never thought I'd change your mind
Hoping for an invitation
But you never even took your time
You told me you wanted more
But you left me standing
Outside your door
But we miss this landing

Nevermind
You could still walk away
Nevermind
You would never mind to say goodbye
Goodbye
Nevermind
You would never mind to say
Nevermind
You could still walk away
Nevermind
You would never mind to say goodbye
Goodbye
Nevermind
You would never mind to say
Goodbye
