

Open Fire

The Anix

Open fire, come destroy my walls within
Down to the wire, crawling underneath my skin
(Underneath my skin)

It feels like I'm burning hopelessly
Crimson flames could be the end of (me)
Nowhere left to hide in all the madness
Feels like I'm last to stand in blackness

Amplifier, come and blast away my tears
Deepest desire, blinding, melt away my fears

Without warning, destruction mastermind
Viciously burning, can't see, leave the smoke behind
Leave the smoke behind, leave the smoke behind
Leave the smoke behind, leave the smoke behind

It feels like I'm burning hopelessly
Crimson flames could be the end of (me)
Nowhere left to hide in all the madness
Feels like I'm last to stand in blackness

Open fire, open fire
Open fire on me, open fire on me
Open fire on me, open fire on me
Open fire on me, open fire on me
On me
Open fire on me
On me, on me
On me, on me
