

Spit You Out

The Anix

It feels alive
But nothing comes, it fades away
It feeds at night
It eats your pain, plays your game
Wait, that's my heart
Dreaming of falling
Watch as I drown
Screaming, I'm falling
It's hard to stand
When I see through your eyes
Too far, too gone
You've died here a million times
(This world will) spit you out!
It breeds to fight
It shakes you up, lies awake
It feels alright
It drinks your tears, plays your fears
Wait, that's my heart
Dreaming of falling
It's hard to stand
When I see through your eyes
Too far, too gone
You've died here a million times
It's hard to breathe
When I see through the lies
Too far, too gone
Now I'm tranquilized
spit you out!
It's hard to stay in this world
Spit you out!
I'm far too gone now
