The Anix

I'm dying to know
What I know now
It's just a found emotion
And she
Knows everything
I found out
Inside the true devotion
Where ever you are
I'll be there
To turn you this way
I'm not going away
I'll be there
But I need to know the truth
Being in this mystery
Locked in stereo
Tearing up my mind
I thought I knew you
Lying in your arms
Just to know the truth
I'd hate to leave you this way
And you
Know everything
I found out
Inside the true devotion...
