

Talking In My Sleep

The Anix

You've got a lot to know, start thinking
Somehow you have to know what's missing
I think about the times we had to go
What's behind is now the past we know

I feel like talking in my sleep tonight (I think about)
So no one, no one's facing what I see (I feel like)
I feel like talking in my sleep tonight (I think about)
So no one, no one's watching after me (I feel like)

You're tears were indigo, hearts wasted
You fall in undertow, complicated
I think about the times we had to know
What's behind is now the past to show

I feel like talking in my sleep tonight (I think about)
So no one, no one's facing what I see (I feel like)
I feel like talking in my sleep tonight (I think about)
So no one, no one's watching after me (I feel like)

You've got a lot to know, start thinking
Somehow you have to know what's missing
(I feel like talking in my sleep tonight)
(I feel like talking in my sleep tonight)
(I feel like)
(I think about)
(I feel like)
(I think about)
(I feel like)

I feel like talking in my sleep tonight (I think about)
So no one, no one's facing what I see (I feel like)
I feel like talking in my sleep tonight (I think about)
So no one, no one's watching after me (I feel like)
