

Strange Kinda' Nothing

The Answer

It's a strange kind of nothing
That I feel in my heart
It's been a strange kinda nothing from the start

If I thought I was something
It was wrong on my part
It's been a strange kinda nothing from the start

A wounded soldier's call
Born to rise and fall
I thought that I was strong
I ain't nothing, nothing at all

Everyday my heart was breaking
Without you in my life
It's been a strange God forsaken lullaby

When I sleep at least I've something
In my dreams you'll appear
It's been a strange kinda nothing over here

A wounded soldier's call
Born to rise and fall
I thought that I was strong
But I ain't nothing, nothing at all

Maybe now this fight is over
Someday soon we'll find peace
But for now this kind of nothing
It's all I see
